

“People Used by God”

Thoughts from Pastor Glenn

“Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee or thirsty and give thee drink?”

- Matthew 25:37

Read: Matthew 25: verse 31-46

Scripture tells us the King puts the sheep on the right and the goats on the left. Both groups asked “ Lord, when?” When did we see you in these circumstances! When was that help given, were you incognito? We didn’t recognize you!. “I was hungry and you delivered a meal to my door. I was thirsty and you gave me water! I was homeless and you gave me shelter. I had a baby at 15, and you helped me so I could finish school. I needed a positive role model and you reached out and touched my life! You saw my wheel chair and you worked to provide a barrier free environment. I could not read , and you helped me. I had great problems and you helped me work them out!! You noticed I didn’t know about Jesus and you told me about how faith in Him strengthens your life. I came to know the Savior through you!

Friends the question asked of the Lord is WHEN?

Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of my brothers or sister, you did it unto me!”

In the coming days, months and years, I hope we do it unto Him. As we plan to fill the positions that are open at Unity-Washington & Wesley UMC for 2012, please give prayerful consideration to serve if you are asked.

WORDS FROM WESLEY UMC

The Wesley UMC Adult Choir presented their monthly worship service for residents at Genesis Health Center in Seaford DE on Sunday, August 21st. Calvin offered two special solos and is now considered a regular choir member. Due to recent surgery, Alice had to miss her first program ever. She has planned and participated in the nursing home ministry the past 12 years on the third Sunday of every month. The following selection is from the August program.

SOMEONE

There is Someone that I talk to, Time after time each day.
Someone that knows before I speak, Each word that I will say.
Someone who knows each single thought, That comes into my mind.
Someone that I have come to know, Only by grace divine.

Though this Someone is far away, Yet He is always near.
His silent voice is heard by those, Who lend a willing ear.
This Someone is as close to us. As we desire He be.
And one day we'll meet this Someone, Our eyes have yet to see.

And so I'll talk to this Someone, Time after time each day.
Although He knows before I speak, Each word that I will say.
To Do As He Would Have Me Do - This is my daily aim.
For this Someone is my Master, Lord Jesus is His name.

We are looking to ADD email addresses to the Church database – If you could send Bob Nilson a hello email he would then have your address.

Raise & Praise

Starting October 3, 2011 Sunday School will begin at 9 am. We will jump-start our morning with worship songs, prayer and fellowship from 9am - 9:20am in the Chapel.

Classes will remain at the 9:30am - 10:15am time.

The Sunday School will also be doing a major cleanout and re-organization of the upstairs in order to improve our already wonderful program. Anyone interested in helping accomplish this mission please see Kathy McMillen or Sarah Jensen.

Mary Martha Circle News

The first fall meeting of the Mary Martha circle will be held Thursday, Sept. 8 with a potluck supper in Fellowship Hall at 6 pm. Guests and potential members are also welcome to attend so that you can find out what it is we do. Among items for discussion will be a fall fundraiser. Tickets will be sold to attend a "sale" night at Wheaton's in Seaford. Each ticketholder gets a 20% discount that night along with light refreshments. The event will last from 6 – 8 pm and be held in November. Please watch and listen for further information. Some topics for our meeting will be the Saturday Fair, state of the chairs in Fellowship Hall and additional fundraising ideas.

Senior Choir

It's that time again – Senior Choir rehearsal will start on Wednesday night, September 14, 2011 at 7:30pm. All voicing is needed; Soprano, Alto, Tenor & Bass. New members are welcome and I plan to see all returning members.....If you have any questions see or call Virginia Naugle.
